Dishonest employees can significantly damage your business.

For example:

- An employee of a janitorial services business was cleaning an auto dealership. A customer left his keys in the night drop; the employee stole the keys and the vehicle. The employee drove the car to another city and wrecked it.
- An employee of a janitorial services business was cleaning a law office and found two envelopes containing cash in an attorney's desk drawer. She stole the money and bought a car.
- On his first day on the job, an employee of a janitorial services business who was cleaning in a bank stole $15,000 cash from the vault.

The janitorial businesses in these examples were protected by the Janitorial Services Bond and their losses were covered by our Surety's up to the coverage limits purchased. Coverage is subject to the conviction of the defaulting employee.

Don't wait until it's too late to get the protection you need.

We've designed our Janitorial Services Bond to quickly and easily provide protection for you and your customers. Hopefully you never experience problems with a dishonest employee, but with our Janitorial Services Bond, you'll rest easier knowing you're covered if you do.

Our Janitorial Services Bond is designed to:

- Protect your customers from losses incurred by dishonest acts of your employees.
- Cover against acts that cause a loss to your valued customers by all company employees, including part- and full-time employees.
